Landair Surveys Completes Acquisition of James A Murphy & Associates

DATE
03/06/2014

Wantirna, VIC (Australia)—Landair Surveys is pleased to announce a completed acquisition of James A Murphy & Associates, a leading provider of

- due diligence surveying solutions for property purchasers and vendors
- lease area surveying solutions for office, industrial and retail industries.

With over thirty years of valuable experience in the property industry, Jim Murphy, the founder, has been playing an instrumental role in establishing best practices in property surveying across the country including providing advice for the preparation of the Property Council of Australia's "Method of Measurement for Residential Property".

As we welcome Jim Murphy and his team, we believe their expertise in conjunction with Landair Surveys' strengths in existing conditions and title surveys, will provide complete surveying solutions for the property industry.
